

Membership in the Prince Albert Sailing Club requires the ownership of a sailing craft, bearing in mind that the purpose of the club is sailing and racing sailboats. While the club is a wonderful place to bring guests and enjoy the natural wonders of the area, members must be sailors, not just campers, and will be expected to participate in club events.